

Overcoming Learning Challenges Anchor Chart (Example, for Teacher Reference)

Overcoming Learning Challenges
Who? Where?	Source	Challenge(s) (facts and details)	How the Challenge is Overcome (facts and details)
Ana in Colombia in a house on a hill.	Waiting for the Biblioburro	Access to education and books: Teacher moved away, so no one to teach students in the village.	Biblioburro: A librarian brings books to the village on his burros.

Reading for Gist and Recounting the Story: Rain School

Name: _____ Date: _____

Overcoming Challenges in _____ (text) Author _____
Somebody... (character)
in... (setting)
wanted... (motivation)
but... (challenge)
so... (solution)
1. Message/Lesson/Moral: What is one idea the author wants you to take away from this book? Check the answer you think answers the question. <input type="checkbox"/> When working to overcome challenges, we can learn new things. <input type="checkbox"/> Rain can destroy buildings that took a long time to build, and it takes a long time to build them again. <input type="checkbox"/> Older children should always work harder than younger children.	